Reading Assignments and Video Lectures:

Mandatory, assigned reading is required for this course; you may also be required to watch recorded video lectures. Reading and video lecture assignments can be found on the course calendar in Blackboard.

Announcements:

Any information sent-out via announcements in emails or posted as an announcement on the course website is important and is, accordingly, an extension of assignment requirements and syllabus policies. Students must read all announcements and will be held responsible for any information posted in the announcements.

Writing Assignments:

You will be required to write and revise documents to produce strong, audience-centered texts, taking into account different purposes, audiences, and tones. The writing assignments will be over an array of topics and could require graphics. These activities will help hone your writing, creativity, and technology skills. The different types of texts students will produce might include:

- Email/Memos
- Short Reports
- Brochures
- Informational Flyers

- Proposals
- Digital Portfolio

Due dates are on the course schedule, and specific assignment details can be found in the Weekly Assignment folders in Blackboard under Course Content. Due times are midnight on the date listed on the calendar.

Revel Assignments:

Throughout the semester, you will be required to complete several online Revel exercises. Availability and due dates are available on the course calendar. Revel assignments will cover content presented in the assigned chapters with discussion assignments as well as Chapter quizzes. When averaged together, these assignments are worth 20% of your final grade, so the completion of your Revel assignments is crucial.

Feedback Fruit Discussions :

These weekly discussions are designed mainly for fully online courses to give the opportunity to interact and engage, sometimes on course topics, sometimes on non-academic/fun topics. Students may participate via either a short written post or a brief video of sixty seconds or less.

When averaged together, these assignments are worth 10% of your final grade.

Grading Time Frames: I grade all work as efficiently and quickly as possible but it could be a week before you receive a grade for your written assignments.

Attendance Policy: I recommend that you access our course at least five times a week to work on the week's assignments. To experience more success, do not procrastinate and attempt to complete a whole week's assignments the day (or night!) before they are due.

You should log in to Blackboard frequently and check your Course Messages, Announcements, and SPC email daily. I will post announcements and send emails regularly.

If you have not submitted any assignments by the fourth-class day, your access to the course will be blocked and the Registrar's Office will remove you from my class roster per census regulations.
