Department of History

Department: Social Sciences

Discipline: History

Course Number: HISTORY 1301

Course Title: United States History I

Credit: 3 Lecture, 0 Lab

Foundational Component Area of Core Curriculum: American History

Prerequisites: TSI compliance in Reading

Available Formats: Conventional, INET, ITV

Campus: Levelland, Reese, ATC, Plainview

Textbook: Varies according to instructor.

Course Specific Instructions: Each instructor will attach his/her course with specific instructions.

Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. United States History I includes the study of pre-Columbian, colonial, revolutionary, early national, slavery and sectionalism, and the Civil War/Reconstruction eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History I include American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, and creation of the federal government.

Course Objectives:

1. critical thinking: demonstrates creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
2. communication: demonstrates effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
3. social responsibility: demonstrates intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
4. personal responsibility: demonstrates the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Course Purpose: To acquaint students with the diversity of American history and to promote critical thinking in interrelating the past to the present. Fundamentally, the course promotes general understanding of a body of knowledge any student know.

Course Requirements: To maximize a student's potential to complete this course, they should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments and examinations in a timely manner, and complete all other projects or papers as assigned in the instructor's specific instructions.

Course Evaluation: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Attendance Policy: Whenever absences become excessive and in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences, the student will be withdrawn from the course. Each instructor will have additional information about attendance on his/her course information sheet.

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students should demonstrate familiarity with the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. This would include the following themes:

- American settlement and diversity
- American culture
- religion
- civil and human rights
- technological change
- economic change
- immigration and migration
- creation of the federal government

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students will:

- Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.

SPC Standard Disability Statement - Any students who, because of a disability, may require special arrangements in order to meet the course requirements should contact the instructor as soon as possible to make and necessary arrangements. Students must present appropriate verification from the SPC Disability Service Office during the instructor's office hours. Please note that instructors are not allowed to provide classroom accommodations until appropriate verification from the SPC Disability Service Office has been provided. For more information, you may contact the Disability Services Office (located in the Health & Wellness Center) at 806-716-2529 or visit <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/health/disabilityservices.php>.

Equal Opportunity, Harassment, and Non-Discrimination Statement - South Plains College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, disability or age in its programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding the non-discrimination policies: Vice President for Student Affairs, South Plains College, 1401 College Avenue, Box 5, Levelland, TX 79336. Phone number 806-716-2360. South Plains College is dedicated to providing a safe and equitable learning environment for all students. Discrimination, sexual assault, and harassment are not tolerated by the college. The Health and Wellness Center offers confidential support (806-716-2529) and Voice of Hope has a 24-hour hotline: 806-763-7273. You are encouraged to report any incidents online at:

This is an online course; consistent access to the internet and to a computer is required for this class. If you have computer problems or internet issues, you may use a computer at one of the computer labs on any SPC campus. I do not accept interrupted computer service or lack of a computer as an excuse for late work in online classes.

Grading of Course work:

Essay on Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom	10%
Exam Essays	40%
Participation and Assignments	50%

Primary Document Essay (10% of your grade)

A prompt for the essay over the book Running a Thousand Miles for Freedom is available in the Weekly Assignments folder in Blackboard. This is a formal 3 – 5-page essay and should conform to MLA standards. The final draft is due in Blackboard on April 13th.

Exams (40% of your grade)

There will be 4 Exam essays approximately four weeks apart. Each exam will cover materials for those weeks. For example, the first exam will cover weeks 1 – 4 and the final exam will cover week 13 – 16. This will include assigned readings, discussion questions, and videos. The essays are not timed and can be completed in advance, however, there will be no essays accepted after the due date. These essays will connect specific information from the readings with the broader themes of the course. All essays for this class are formal, persuasive essays. They should conform to MLA format. Please review the rubric and the sample paper posted in Course Documents. Do not use outside sources; the assigned readings will be all that you need to complete the essays.

Weekly Assignments (50% of your grade)

Each chapter in U. S. History may have a corresponding writing assignment in Blackboard. Complete each assignment as you finish the readings. Please note: no assignment will count after its due date.

Important Dates and Deadlines

Weekly Assignments	Each Thursday, due in Blackboard by 11 pm.
Exam Essays	Weeks 4, 8, 12,16, due in Blackboard on Thurs. by 11 pm.
Essay Running a Thousand Miles	Week 13, due in Blackboard on Thurs. by 11 pm.

Course Rules

Late Assignments: Make-up exam, quizzes, and papers are not allowed without a written excuse for incomplete work. Only when you have presented your written excuse from a healthcare provider or other professional will you be allowed to make up an exam or assignment and it must be within ONE WEEK of your return to class. There may be a 5-point penalty for each day an assignment is late after the original due date.

Feedback: I will reply to all messages or emails within 24 hours during the week. I will grade exams within two weeks. I typically grade Discussion Board posts within 2 weeks. I will not respond to every discussion post, rather, I might add something or emphasis a point made in the post. Sometimes I ask for clarification if I am unsure what the poster was trying to share.

Withdrawal Policy: It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from this course. Otherwise, students will be assigned their earned letter grade at the end of the course. Course averages will be updated each week, and guidance will be provided throughout the term to help students decide whether they need to drop the class or not. For more information regarding drops/withdrawals, please visit <https://www.southplainscollege.edu/admission-aid/apply/schedulechanges.php>.

Blackboard Messages: The best way to contact me is through Blackboard Messages. Messages are private, and all correspondence about the course should go through Messages. I check my messages and emails for the last time each weekday before 5 pm; please do not expect an answer after 5 pm or while I am in a class. Please only use my email if Blackboard is unavailable. Do not send assignments through email; I will not accept any assignment through email. If Blackboard service is disrupted, I will be notified and I will extend my due date and time to allow for the disruption. You do not need to notify me if Blackboard is down.

Plagiarism will not be tolerated: I consider academic dishonesty (cheating, fabrication, plagiarism, interference with another student's work) to be serious misconduct. Anything that is plagiarized will receive an automatic Zero (0) and possible expulsion from the course or disciplinary action through the school. Simply stated, plagiarism is claiming another author's work as your own. If you quote or use another author's work, you must cite that author. You can find information about proper citation here: <http://www.southplainscollege.edu/information-for/current-spc-students/library/cslibrary/vl/plagiarism.php> If you are unsure what constitutes plagiarism, please email or meet with me as soon as possible.

Covid: For information and resources about Covid-19, please visit <https://www.southplainscollege.edu/emergency/covid19-faq.php>

Other concerns: I strongly encourage you to meet with me or email to discuss any circumstances that might affect your performance in this class. I cannot assist you if I do not know you have a problem.
