Department of History

Department: Social Sciences

Discipline: History

Course Number: HISTORY 1301

Course Title: United States History I

Credit: 3 Lecture, 0 Lab

Satisfies a core curriculum requirement? Yes, American History

Prerequisites: TSI compliance in Reading

Available Formats: Conventional, INET, ITV

Campus: Levelland, Reese, ATC, Plainview

Textbook: Varies according to instructor.

Course Specific Instructions: Each instructor will attach his/her course with specific instructions.

Course Description: A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. United States History I includes the study of pre-Columbian, colonial, revolutionary, early national, slavery and sectionalism, and the Civil War/Reconstruction eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History I include: American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, and creation of the federal government.

Course Objectives addressed:

1. critical thinking: demonstrates creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
2. communication: demonstrates effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
3. social responsibility: demonstrates intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
4. personal responsibility: demonstrates the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Course Purpose: To acquaint students with the diversity of American history and to promote critical thinking in interrelating the past to the present. Fundamentally, the course promotes general understanding of a body of knowledge any literate person should possess about the history of his own country.

Course Requirements: To maximize a student's potential to complete this course, he/she should attend all class meetings, complete all homework assignments and examinations in a timely manner, and complete all other projects or papers as assigned in the instructor's specific instructions.

Course Evaluation: See the instructor's course information sheet for specific items used in evaluating student performance.

Attendance Policy: Whenever absences become excessive and in the instructor's opinion, minimum course objectives cannot be met due to absences, the student will be withdrawn from the course. Each instructor will have additional information about attendance on his/her course information sheet.

Learning Outcomes: Upon successful completion of this course, students should be familiar with the evolution of American political, social, and economic institutions and traditions from the arrival of Europeans to the mid-nineteenth century. This would include the ability to:

- Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.

Technical Support:

Because this course will be conducted partially online; including lectures, blackboard readings, assignments, and quizzes, it is imperative that you plan to have regular access to reliable internet. I would recommend that you NOT PLAN ON ONLY UTILIZING YOUR PHONE for this course, a computer of some sort is strongly recommended. If this is a problem for you please contact me as soon as possible as there are methods available to eliminate this barrier.

Technical Support is available through the IT Department of SPC. The Blackboard help desk can be reached via email at blackboard@southplainscollege.edu or via phone at 806.716.2180 (M-F 8am-4pm). Technical support is for technical questions, not asking questions about this course or asking to reopen a quiz etc.

Course Description:

A survey of the social, political, economic, cultural, and intellectual history of the United States from the pre-Columbian era to the Civil War/Reconstruction period. United States History I includes the study of pre-Columbian, colonial, revolutionary, early national, slavery and sectionalism, and the Civil War/Reconstruction eras. Themes that may be addressed in United States History I include: American settlement and diversity, American culture, religion, civil and human rights, technological change, economic change, immigration and migration, and creation of the federal government.

Learning Outcomes and Course Objectives:

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be familiar with the evolution of American political, social, and economic institutions and traditions from the arrival of Europeans to the mid-nineteenth century.

This would include the ability to:

- Create an argument through the use of historical evidence.
- Analyze and interpret primary and secondary sources.
- Analyze the effects of historical, social, political, economic, cultural, and global forces on this period of United States history.

Upon successful completion of this course, students should be familiar with the evolution of American political, social, and economic institutions and traditions and its role in the world from the arrival of Europeans to the mid-nineteenth century. This would include the following:

- Discovery of the western hemisphere
- Colonization of North America
- Short-term and long-term causes and results of the American Revolution
- Development of the US Constitution
- Territorial expansion
- American political and social development
- American reform movements
- Creation of the national government between 1787 and 1861
- Evolution and development of American foreign policy
- Social, economic, and political issues that led to the Civil War
- Social, economic, and political consequences of the Civil War
- Reconstruction

Course Objectives:

During this course students will be taught how to think critically, how to communicate effectively, and how to identify and practice social and personal responsibility. Class lectures and assignments will focus on these techniques and students will be given opportunities to implement the different techniques.

- critical thinking: to include creative thinking, innovation, inquiry, and analysis, evaluation, and synthesis of information.
- communication: to include effective development, interpretation and expression of ideas through written, oral and visual communication.
- social responsibility: to include intercultural competence, knowledge of civic responsibility, and the ability to engage effectively in regional, national, and global communities.
- personal responsibility: to include the ability to connect choices, actions, and consequences to ethical decision-making.

Civility in the Classroom:

Students are expected to assist in maintaining a classroom environment that is conducive to learning. In order to assure that all students have the opportunity to gain from time spent in class, unless otherwise approved by the instructor; students are prohibited from engaging in any other form of distraction. Inappropriate behavior in the classroom shall result, minimally, in a request to leave class.

Examples of inappropriate behavior include cellular phones, internet surfing (this includes Facebook, email and Blackboard), hostile or excessively aggressive behavior towards other students or the instructor, excessive tardiness, leaving class early, making offensive remarks, prolonged chattering, reading newspapers during class, sleeping, arriving late to class, dominating discussions, overt inattentiveness, etc

Academic Writing:

South Plains College requires all students to become proficient in "academic English," a form of English that is typically used in academic, professional, and business contexts. While slang, regional idioms, and informal kinds of self-expression are appropriate in some contexts, they are out of place in academic writing. Writing instructors and professors in courses across the campus expect all students to demonstrate proficiency in using the conventions of academic English in their written work, whether it is in-class exams or take-home essays.

Cheating and Plagiarism:

At SPC we take the offense of plagiarism very seriously. Plagiarism is the theft of another person's work. If you copy something from an internet source and present it as your own that is cheating, copying, and it is against the rules.

Cheating: Dishonesty of any kind on examinations or on written assignments, illegal possession of examinations, the use of unauthorized notes during an examination, obtaining information during an examination from the textbook or from the examination paper of another student, assisting others to cheat, alteration of grade records, illegal entry or unauthorized presence in an office are examples of cheating. Complete honesty is required of the student in the presentation of any and all phases of course work. This applies to quizzes of whatever length, as well as to final examinations, to daily reports and to term papers.

Plagiarism: Offering the work of another as one's own, without proper acknowledgment, is plagiarism; therefore, any student who fails to give credit for quotations or essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines and other reference works, or from the themes, reports or other writings of fellow student, is guilty of plagiarism.

AI: There are now websites that will actually generate semi-unique material that somewhat resembles original material. Since the technology is available to create this content, technology is also available to detect this content. Make no mistake, this is plagiarism. If you submit work that is not your own, original material, it will be considered plagiarism and receive a grade of zero. The incident will also be detailed to the Dean of Students for disciplinary actions.

The consequence of cheating in my classes is this: the offender(s) will be receive zero credit for the entire assignment or exam potentially dropped from the class with an F and a report submitted to the Dean of Student Affairs.

Attendance Policy:

Attendance will be recorded on a daily basis by the professor. Three (3) absences are allowed without penalty. Your fourth (4) absence will result in the reduction of your course grade by one half a letter grade. Your fifth (5) absence will result being dropped from the course. If you find yourself missing class for any reason please let the professor know in advance (if possible) the reason for missing class. DO NOT SCHEDULE anything that conflicts with exam dates.

All Students are required to read their text according to the lecture schedule below. Students should be prepared to contribute to class discussion of the lecture topics. Exams will be based on both lecture and discussion of the text, and students should maintain careful notes in order to prepare for these exams. Students are responsible for all missed reading assignments, notes etc.

The instructor reserves the right to count students absent if they are not prepared, being disruptive, or participating in class. Students are expected to follow all class procedures, including the prohibition of phones.

Religious Holidays

Any student who intends to observe a religious holy day should make that intention known to the instructor prior to the absence. A student who is absent from class for the observance of a religious holy day shall be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence.

Office Hours:

My office hours are set aside specifically for you and your fellow classmates. During this time please feel free to discuss questions from lectures or readings. If you have questions concerning grades assigned on exams or other assignments please bring the assignment with you and specific questions concerning the grading. If you have any difficulties relating to this course, I urge you to come to see me without delay.

Make-up Policy:

No make-ups are allowed; except for extreme circumstances.

 ALL MAKE-UP EXAMS WILL BE ESSAY ONLY (4 questions).

FAILURE TO TAKE AN EXAM WILL RESULT IN FAILURE FOR THE SEMESTER.

If you miss a Blackboard assignment due date, you will not get any points for that assignment. There will be no curves on exam grades or assignments.

Grading Policy:

There will be one final exam (150 points), two mid-term examinations (100 points each), ten weekly quizzes or discussion posts (10 points each), two film assignments (75 points each) and attendance and participation (50 points) totaling 650 points.

585-650= "A"

520-584 = "B"

455-519 = "C"

390-454= "D"

below 390 = "F".

Extra Credit:

There will be no extra credit beyond what is offered on the exams and by fully completing all assignments.

Withdrawal Policy:

The last day to withdraw/drop with a grade of "W" is April 25th. It is the student's responsibility to withdraw from the course, if the student does not withdraw from the course they will be assigned their earned letter grade at the end of the course. Approximately one week before the drop date the professor will post an update course grade. If you have a question to whether you should withdraw please make an appointment to speak to the professor.
